Policy Type: Board-General Manager Relationship
Policy Title: C3 – Monitoring Management Performance
Last Revised: 06/26/2023

The Board will systematically and rigorously monitor and evaluate the General Manager’s job performance.

Monitoring is how the Board determines the degree to which the General Manager is following Board policies. Information that does not directly relate to Ends or Executive Limitations policies is not monitoring information.

1. The Board will acquire monitoring information by one or more of three methods:
 - a. By internal report, in which the General Manager discloses interpretations and compliance information to the Board;
 - b. By external report, in which an external, disinterested third party selected by the Board assesses compliance with Board policies; or
 - c. By direct Board inspection, in which a designated director or committee assesses compliance with the policy criteria.
2. In every case, the standard for compliance will be any reasonable General Manager interpretation (as described by operational definitions and metrics) of the Board policy being monitored. The Board is the final arbiter of reasonableness but will always judge with a “reasonable person” test rather than with interpretations favored by individual directors or by the Board as a whole.
3. The General Manager is compliant with a policy if they present a reasonable interpretation and adequate data that demonstrate accomplishment of that interpretation.
4. The Board will monitor all policies that instruct the General Manager. The Board can monitor any policy at any time by any method listed above but will ordinarily follow the schedule outlined in the Board Annual Calendar.
5. The Board’s annual evaluation of the General Manager, based on a summary of monitoring reports received during the fiscal year (July through June), will be completed no later than the end of September. As applicable, the Board will also make decisions concerning the employment contract no later than September.

The Board will govern in a manner consistent with the Four Pillars of Cooperative Governance (Teaming, Accountable Empowerment, Strategic Leadership, and Democracy).¹ To do this, we will:

1. Be a strategic leader by developing a vision for the cooperative and setting direction for movement toward that vision in alignment with cooperative values and principles.
2. Ensure effective systems of delegating authority to professional management, holding the use of that power accountable, and clearly distinguishing between board and management responsibilities.
3. Use Policy Governance® as our operating system, guiding the work of the board and the General Manager through written policies.
4. Work as a team to maintain discipline, embrace responsibility, and exercise group authority.
5. Practice the habits of a successful democracy.
6. Advance a commitment to justice, diversity, equity, and inclusion.
7. Seek, encourage, and actively listen to diverse perspectives.

Board Members each commit themselves to ethical, businesslike and lawful conduct.

This accountability supersedes any conflicting loyalty such as that to advocacy or interest groups, membership on other Boards or staffs, and the personal interest of any Board Member acting as an individual consumer or Member.

 - c. When the Board is to decide on an issue about which a Board Member has an unavoidable conflict of interest, that Board Member shall recuse themselves from the conversation, including any discussion of the issue or any related information, and from the vote on that subject, unless otherwise determined by the Board.
 - d. A Board Member who applies for employment at the Cooperative must first resign from the Board.
 - e. Any Board Member who is also a paid employee has the same duties and responsibilities as any other Board Member, and has the additional duty of clearly segregating staff and Board responsibilities.
 - i. Any Board Member who is also a paid employee carries certain unavoidable conflicts of interest. They will recuse themselves from conversations, information and votes related to topics including, but not limited to labor relations activities or negotiations, and personnel matters related to any paid staff member of the Cooperative.
 1. Labor relations activities shall include, but are not limited to: topics pertaining to negotiations with any Union representing its employees; the administration of any collective bargaining unit agreement; the handling of grievances or claims of unfair labor practices; and any potential organizational and operational changes that may impact the co-op’s relationship or agreements with any bargaining unit.

2. Personnel matters include, but are not limited to: compensation for any staff members including the GM; performance evaluations; actual or contemplated disciplinary issues; or other issues relating to the hiring, firing, or managing the performance of employees.
 - ii. Any Board Member who is also a paid employee may not simultaneously serve in an elected or leadership role in the Union.
 - iii. Any Board Member who is also a paid employee will resign from the Board if and when their employment ends.
3. Board Members may not attempt to exercise individual authority over the organization.
 - a. When interacting with the General Manager or employees, Board Members must carefully and openly recognize their lack of authority.
 - b. When interacting with the public, the press, or other entities, Board Members must recognize the same limitation and the inability of any Board Member to speak for the Board except to repeat explicitly stated Board decisions.
4. Board Members will respect the confidentiality appropriate to issues of a sensitive nature and must continue to honor confidentiality after leaving Board services.
5. Board Members will prepare for and attend all Board meetings and trainings.
6. Board Members will support the legitimacy and authority of the Board's decision on any matter, irrespective of the Board Member's personal position on the issue.
